Grapevine Police Investigate Fatal Crash

GRAPEVINE, Texas - A two-vehicle crash in Grapevine has claimed the life of an Irving woman.

At approximately 9:50 a.m. on Saturday, February, 29, 2020, a Dodge sedan was traveling west on Hall-Johnson through the intersection at William D. Tate, when the driver of a Mercedes ran a red light and crashed into the Dodge.

The Dodge flipped on impact and landed next to the northbound frontage road of William D. Tate. An injured passenger was transported to the hospital where she was pronounced deceased. The victim was an Irving woman in her 50s. Her name has not been released pending notification to next of kin.

Crash investigators are reviewing evidence and speaking with the driver of the Mercedes. No charges have been filed at this time.

The northbound service road of William D. Tate was closed for approximately five hours.
