Grapevine Police Search for Missing Runaways

GRAPEVINE, Texas - Grapevine Police are looking for two children believed to have run away together in Grapevine.

13-year-old Pristina Cunningham and 14-year-old Conner Talley were last seen around 4:45 p.m. on Sunday, December 26, 2021 at the Rainforest Café inside Grapevine Mills. Both teens were there with parents, but disappeared after asking to visit the gift shop.

Pristina and Conner left their phones behind, and a check of social media reveals they planned to run away and board a train together. Due to their age and a private medical concern, detectives are asking the public to keep watch for their whereabouts.

Anyone who sees Pristina or Conner is urged to call 9-1-1 or Grapevine Police immediately at 817.410.8127.
